ISLAND ENERGY SERVICES OFFERING FREE COFFEE TO HAWAII'S HEALTHCARE WORKERS STATEWIDE

KAPOLEI, Hawai'i, (March 27, 2020) – Island Energy Services, LLC announced today that it will be providing free coffee as a mahalo to those on the frontline of the COVID-19 pandemic: Hawai'i's hospital workers and medical personnel.

Jon Mauer, President and CEO of Island Energy Services, said, "Hawai'i's healthcare workers have taken on the worst of this pandemic and are working countless hours to help all those in need of urgent medical care. To show our gratitude and deep appreciation, we invite them to enjoy a free pick-me-up cup of coffee to help get them through their long days. From all of us at IES, thank you to all the doctors, nurses, first responders and other medical personnel for your selfless service in combatting this virus."

Healthcare workers across the Hawaiian Islands can now enjoy a free coffee at any of the 26 participating Texaco® stations on O'ahu, Kaua'i, Maui and Island of Hawai'i by simply showing their healthcare ID. This offer is redeemable on any size coffee now through April 30, 2020. Limit to one free coffee per customer each day.
