ISLAND ENERGY SERVICES ANNOUNCES LIMITED OPERATIONS, SELECT CLOSURES AT TEXACO STATIONS DUE TO HURRICANE DOUGLAS

KAPOLEI, Hawai'i, (July 26, 2020) - Island Energy Services (IES), Hawai'i's Texaco-brand licensee, announces it will move to limited operations at select Texaco service stations at 9:30 a.m., today, Sunday, July 26, in response to impending inclement weather caused by Hurricane Douglas.

While some stations statewide are expected to close, others will remain open to serve the community. Those that close will only reopen when it is safe to do so, and after appropriate hazard assessments have been conducted.

For the latest information on station status, please visit Texaco's social media pages (@TexacoinHawaii) on Facebook and Twitter.
