

Island Energy Services Recognizes 5th Anniversary Year with contributions to support the local environment, fresh water security, education, and food security

KAPOLEI, Hawai'i, November 1, 2021 - Island Energy Services ("Island Energy"), the licensee of the Texaco brand in Hawai'i, is celebrating its 5th anniversary of its founding in 2016. In celebration, Island Energy announced today a $15,000 contribution to the Hawai'i Community Foundation ("HCF") at a gathering of its employees, business partners, and other valued guests at its headquarters in Kapolei, O'ahu.

Island Energy's President and CEO Jon Mauer remarked, "We have achieved this milestone through the hard work, dedication, and passion of our valued employees and business partners. These traits have guided us as a local company that focuses solely on meeting Hawai'i's energy needs now and into the future. We are mindful as we are celebrating our fifth year anniversary that the COVID-19 pandemic has impacted many local families. In recognition, and consistent with our company's values, we felt it was important to kōkua the local communities we serve during these challenging times."

Island Energy is also donating to HCF 200 signed copies of local author Rusty Komori's leadership book Beyond The Lines to provide additional resources for grantees to further strengthen their leadership capabilities to achieve and sustain extraordinary results for their organizations.

"I am thrilled to collaborate with Island Energy and Hawaii Community Foundation in supporting this contribution. It is my hope that the recipients will be inspired and discover new ways to build upon their successes and create their own superior cultures of excellence," said author Rusty Komori.
